Chapter 3

Periodic reports

§ 11

1. Subject to § 16 and § 17, an issuer of debt financial instruments shall provide periodic reports only including:

- 1) semi-annual reports covering the period of the first 6 months of the financial year;
 - 2) annual reports.
2. The issuer referred to in sub-paragraph 1 that is a holding entity shall additionally provide periodical reports in the form of a consolidated semi-annual report and consolidated annual report. The issuer may not prepare a consolidated semi-annual report and consolidated annual report only in the case referred to in Article 56(3) of the Accounting Act. The issuer may not consolidate its subsidiaries only in the cases referred to in Article 57 or Article 58 of the Accounting Act. If relieved from the obligation to prepare a consolidated semi-annual report and consolidated annual report or if the consolidated semi-annual report and consolidated annual report does not include all subsidiaries, the issuer shall provide in the semi-annual report and annual report selected financial data of the non-consolidated subsidiaries including the main items of their semi-annual and annual financial statements.
 3. The issuer referred to in sub-paragraph 1 that is a holding entity shall not be required to provide a separate semi-annual report provided that the consolidated semi-annual report contains information concerning the issuer referred to in § 12 sub-paragraph 1 point (1), (2), (2a) and (2b) and § 12 sub-paragraph 2.
 4. An issuer of debt financial instruments whose unit nominal value as at the issue date is at least EUR 100,000 (or the equivalent determined at the mid currency exchange rate of the National Bank of Poland at the date of such determination), whose parent entity is an entity whose financial instruments are admitted to trading on a regulated market in a Member State of the European Union or in a country which is a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area, shall not be required to present semi-annual reports or consolidated semi-annual reports. An issuer shall be relieved of these obligations provided that only financial instruments of the issuer with a unit nominal value referred to in the first sentence are introduced to the alternative trading system and the issuer publishes consolidated semi-annual financial statements of the group of the issuer's parent entity if they consolidate the issuer and all of its subsidiaries that would be subject to consolidation by the issuer according to the applicable regulations or internationally recognised standards. The aforementioned consolidated semi-annual financial statements of the group of the issuer's parent entity shall be prepared according to the regulations or internationally recognised standards applicable to such parent entity and published in the procedure and within the time limit applicable on the regulated market in a Member State of the European Union or in a country which is a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area where financial instruments issued by such parent entity are admitted to trading.

§ 12

1. A semi-annual report shall include at least the following:
 - 1) selected financial data including the main lines of the semi-annual financial statement (also converted into the euro);
 - 2) condensed semi-annual financial statements covering the period of the first six months of the financial year, prepared according to the accounting standards applicable to the issuer, as follows:
 - a) where the Polish accounting standards apply, the condensed semi-annual financial statements shall include at least the following: the balance sheet, the profit and loss account, the statement of changes in equity, and the cash flow statement – within the scope designated with letters and Roman numerals and Arabic numerals, depending on pursued activities, in Annex 1, 2 or 3 to the Accounting Act,
 - b) where internationally recognised standards apply, the semi-annual financial statements shall be prepared at least in the condensed version within the scope set out in such standards,
 - c) where accounting standards other than those referred to in points (a) and (b) apply, the abridged semi-annual financial statement shall include at least an abridged balance sheet and an abridged profit and loss account including all lines included in the last annual financial statement of the issuer; additional lines shall also be presented if their omission would cause the abridged semi-annual financial statement to present an erroneous picture of the assets, the liabilities, the financial situation and the profit or loss of the issuer; additional information to the abridged semi-annual financial statement shall include at least:
 - information ensuring the comparability of the abridged semi-annual financial statement with the last annual financial statement;
